

Unavo is a subscription-based food delivery platform created to simplify everyday eating. We provide fresh, hygienic, and affordable meals through flexible daily, weekly, and monthly subscription plans designed for modern lifestyles.

Whether it's busy professionals managing work schedules, students living away from home, or families looking for convenient meal solutions, Unavo helps customers enjoy consistent, home-style food without the hassle of daily cooking or repeated ordering.

Operating through a cloud kitchen model, Unavo focuses on quality ingredients, efficient preparation, reliable delivery, and customer satisfaction. Every meal is prepared with attention to hygiene, taste, and nutrition, ensuring customers receive dependable food service they can trust every day.

At Unavo, we believe food subscriptions should be simple, affordable, and stress-free — making good food a daily habit, not a daily task.
